is published by the British School of Archaeology in Iraq (Gertrude Bell Memorial). It is devoted to studies of the history, art, archaeology, religion, social life, law, geography, and natural history of Iraq, and to a lesser degree of the neighbouring countries, Persia, Armenia, Anatolia, Syria and Arabia, from the earliest times down to about A.D. 1700. Texts dealing with these subjects, with translations and comments, will be published; exclusively philological articles will not be accepted.

CONTRIBUTORS are requested to submit for illustration only clear prints of photographs or strong outline drawings. For Oriental languages transliteration into Roman script on the approved system should be employed, as laid down in the 'Notice to Contributors', which will be sent on application. Articles should be sent to
