Notes for Contributors and Subscribers

Policy. The Journal of Linguistics is concerned with all branches of linguistics (including phonetics). Preference is given to articles of general theoretical interest. Contributions are welcomed from linguists in all countries, and not merely from members of the Linguistics Association of Great Britain. The normal language of publication is English, but articles in French and German may also be submitted for consideration by the Editorial Board.

Editorial Address. Professor E. C. Fudge, Department of Linguistics, The University of Hull, Hull HU6 7RX, England.

Copying. This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, P.O. Box 8891, Boston, Mass. 02114. Organizations in the USA who are also registered with the C.C.C. may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of USA copyright law) subject to payment to the C.C.C. of the per-copy fee indicated in the code on the first page of the article. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes.

ISI Tear Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19104, USA, is authorized to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only.

For all other use, permission should be sought from the Cambridge or New York offices of the Cambridge University Press.

Style. As far as possible, footnotes should be avoided. References are to be made IN THE TEXT by giving in brackets the name of the author and year of publication, and where relevant the page(s) referred to: e.g. '... (Bloomfield, 1934: 200-10) ...'. All works referred to should be listed, with full bibliographical details and in alphabetical order, at the end of the article. Greek and Cyrillic may be used for languages normally written with these alphabets; otherwise the Latin alphabet is to be used, and cited forms should be italicized (without quotation marks). Phonetic transcriptions should, wherever possible, make use of the symbols and conventions of the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA): they must not be used in footnotes, and they should be no 'narrower' than is absolutely necessary for the purpose. Translational 'meanings' and quotations should be placed within SINGLE quotation marks. Technical terms and other words to which it is desired to give particular emphasis may be printed in SMALL CAPITALS, but NOT in italics.

On other points of style, intending contributors should be guided by recent issues of the Journal. They should not hesitate to consult the Editor in advance of submission.

Proofs. First proofs only will be sent to the author (or his nominee), who will be expected to correct them and return them to the Editor, by airmail where appropriate, within three days of receipt.

Subscriptions. One volume of the Journal is published each year in two parts. The subscription price which includes postage is £13.50 net, USA and Canada US $37.50. Single parts are also available at £8.50 net each, US $23.50, plus postage. Orders, which must be accompanied by payment, may be placed with any bookseller or subscription agent, or sent direct to Cambridge University Press, P.O. Box 110, Cambridge CB2 3RL, or, in USA and Canada, Cambridge University Press, 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022, USA.

Claims for the replacement of journals believed to be lost in transmission will only be entertained if made immediately after receipt of the subsequent issue of the Journal.
