PRIVATE LAW IN THE INTERNATIONAL ARENA
From National Conflict Rules Towards Harmonization and Unification

Liber Amicorum Kurt Siehr

Edited by:

J. Basedow, I. Meier, A.K. Schnyder, T. Einhorn and D. Girsberger

Private Law in the International Arena contains 57 original contributions authored by renowned lawyers from all over the Globe. It analyzes a wide variety of effects that cross-border activities have on the operation of private law, ranging from corporate and insolvency law to labor law, property law, the law of obligations, family law, European law and lex mercatoria. Civil procedure aspects, in national courts and arbitration proceedings, are dealt with as well. Since hardly anything is achieved nowadays without crossing some borders this book is of the utmost importance to scholars and practitioners alike. Indeed, it provides a unique source of insights into the problems encountered and their possible solutions.

All contributions have been written in honor of an eminent Private International Law scholar, Prof. Dr. Kurt Siehr of the University of Zurich, on the occasion of his 65th Anniversary. The editors are Prof. Dr. Jürgen Basedow, Director of the Max Planck Institute for Foreign Private and Private International Law in Hamburg, Prof. Dr. Isaak Meier, University of Zurich, Prof. Dr. Anton K. Schnyder, University of Basel, Prof. Dr. Talia Einhorn, T.M.C. Asser Institute, The Hague, and PD Dr. Daniel Girsberger, University of Zurich.

Business and Politics

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Vinod K. Aggarwal, University of California, Berkeley, USA

EDITOR

Emerson Tiller, University of Texas, USA

Supported by Associate Editors and an Editorial Board

Business and Politics publishes articles within the broad area of the interaction between firms and political actors. Two areas are of particular interest to the journal:

- the use of non-market corporate strategy, including both internal organizational design decisions (management structure, sourcing decisions, transnational organization) as well as external strategies (legal tactics, testimony, lobbying).
- efforts by policy makers to influence firm behaviour through regulatory, legal, financial, and other government instruments.

Business and Politics does not favour any particular methodology or approach, but emphasizes analytical rigor and novel empirical analysis. The journal includes articles which focus on different regions of the world, cross-regional studies, and interdisciplinary work. It strongly encourages perspectives from business, political science, law, economics and public policy.

This journal is also available online.
