

THE ELECTION OF HONORARY FELLOWS
OF
THE INSTITUTE OF ACTUARIES

Following an alteration to the Bye-Laws of the Institute of Actuaries, the Council of the Institute is now enabled to “recommend for election as an Honorary Fellow a person who, on account either of his position or of his eminence in science and his experience in matters relative to the profession of actuary, appears to be able to render assistance in promoting the objects of the Institute and who is not professionally engaged in practice as an actuary.”

The following individuals were nominated as Honorary Fellows of the Institute of Actuaries at the Annual General Meeting on 28 June 1999, and were elected as such at the Sessional Meeting on 25 October 1999:

Professor Roy Anderson, University of Oxford
Sir Bryan Carsberg, International Accounting Standards Committee
Professor Christopher Chapman, University of Southampton
Professor Sir Richard Doll, University of Oxford
Professor Peter Donnelly, University of Oxford
Professor Geoffrey Grimmett, University of Cambridge
Professor David Hand, University of London
Mr Subramaniam Iyer, formerly International Labour Office
Sir Alan Langlands, National Health Service
Mr Michael Nichols, Nichols Group
Professor Ragnar Norberg, University of London
Sir Michael Ogden
Professor Tony Ridley, University of London
Professor Howell Tong, University of London
Professor Sir David Tweedie, Accounting Standards Board
Dr Richard Verrall, City University
Professor Henry Wynn, University of Warwick

The full list of citations will appear in a later part of B.A.J.