Cover Artwork

Ganges, photograph by Jennii Booth

“Moksha” describes freedom or release from the never-ending cycle of death and rebirth for Hindus and Jains. In this image, we witness the magic and pollution of the sacred river Ganges in Varanasi, India, exploring the visual identity of community, examining the potential for disaster.

Jennii Booth specializes in Photography and Drawing; her work provides evidence of life, a subconscious fluidity searching for nuances. Through photography she hunts and captures. Through drawing Jennii scratches out the madness within. She cooperates with mistakes, appreciating how it makes the work more original, repeating some mistakes until they form their own algorithm.

Booth has an Honors Bachelor of Fine Art, a Masters in Leadership, and a Bachelor of Education. She exists in London, UK, where she makes art, organizes collaborative art projects, and runs a high school art department.

Prehospital and Disaster Medicine (Print ISSN 1049-023X; Electronic ISSN 1945-1938) is published bimonthly in the months of February, April, June, August, October, and December for the World Association for Disaster and Emergency Medicine. PDM incorporates the Journal of the World Association for Emergency and Disaster Medicine and the Journal of Prehospital Medicine.

Aims and Scope: The mission of Prehospital and Disaster Medicine (PDM) is the dissemination of information relevant to the practice of out-of-hospital and in-hospital emergency medical care, disaster health, and emergency public health. PDM provides an international forum for the reporting and discussion of scientific studies, both quantitative and qualitative, that have relevance to the above practices.

Submissions: All manuscripts must be submitted through the Journal's online submission platform, ScholarOne Manuscripts, at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/pdm>. Please review the Author Instructions and Author Checklist available online before finalizing a submission. All studies that include human subjects must be submitted for review or exemption to a formal human subjects ethics committee.

Indexing: PDM is covered by Clarivate Analytics services and indexed and abstracted in the Science Citation Index (also known as SciSearch®) and the Journal Citation Reports/Science Edition. PDM is comprehensively indexed by the US National Library of Medicine (MEDLINE), Scopus®, Cumulative Index to Nursing and Allied Health (CINAHL), and Health Star Cumulative Index. Abstracts and search capability available at <https://www.cambridge.org/core/journals/prehospital-and-disaster-medicine>.

Statement of Peer Review Policy: PDM is a signatory with the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE) and the Committee On Publication Ethics (COPE). All scientific papers published in PDM are submitted to subject content and methods experts for peer review. Authors and reviewers are blinded (not aware of the identity of each other). Peer reviewers must declare that there is not a conflict of interest with any manuscript they agree to review. Peer review is accomplished by means of a standard scoring system and specific comments, the results and contents of which are returned to authors for their review.
