INTERNATIONAL DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

Second Edition

Professor J.G. Merrills

A substantially expanded and updated edition of Professor Merrills' comprehensive survey of the methods and techniques employed in the peaceful settlement of international disputes. This book explains what the relevant techniques and institutions are, how they work and when they are used.

The new edition deals with many recent developments, discussing peace-keeping operations, current treaty practice, contemporary arbitral decisions, including the Rainbow Warrior case, and the latest case-law of the International Court of Justice.

COMPETITION POLICY AND MERGER CONTROL IN THE SINGLE EUROPEAN MARKET

The Rt Hon. Sir Leon Brittan, QC

What is the jurisdictional basis for the operation of EC Competition rules? What is the scope and range of application of the recently adopted "Merger Regulation"? These questions are central to the administration of EC Competition policy and to any corporate strategic planning in Europe.

In two lectures delivered in February 1990 at the University of Cambridge, Sir Leon Brittan, who is the Vice-President of the European Commission, examines these problems in the context of the unfolding Single Market.

HERSCH LAUTERPACHT MEMORIAL LECTURES

ASPECTS OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE

by

E. LAUTERPACHT, CBE, QC

Director of the Research Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge
Member of the Institute of International Law

This elaboration of the Hersch Lauterpacht Memorial Lectures delivered in November, 1990, deals with a number of controversial issues in the operation of the contemporary system of international justice particularly important in the U.N. Decade of International Law.

Drawing upon his extensive experience of international litigation and his long academic involvement in the subject, the author:

- examines critically the expansion in the number of international tribunals;
- questions, in the light of State practice, the continuing validity of the seemingly axiomatic requirement that jurisdiction may not be exercised without consent;
- assesses the extent to which access to international tribunals should be opened more widely to international organizations, corporations and individuals;
- reviews the desirability of developing the concept of appeals within the international judicial system;
- examines, within the framework of a consideration of the composition of international tribunals, the significance of the growing recourse to Chambers of the International Court of Justice;
- and concludes with a searching analysis of the role of equity in international litigation and, in particular, the need for changes in traditional procedures to take account of the extended discretion of the judiciary.

MULTILATERAL TREATIES IN THE FIELD OF THE ENVIRONMENT

in 2 volumes

Volume I – contains 78 conventions concluded in the period 1933 – 1979 (originally published by UNEP in 1983; now available for sale with Vol. II)

Volume II – contains 50 conventions concluded in the period 1979 – 1989, (together with some earlier conventions supplementing Vol. I)

Containing the essential substance of international environmental law, these volumes are fundamental works of reference for all who are interested in the protection of the world around us – laymen as much as professionals.

Each volume is divided into two parts.

Part I – Basic Data – provides a summary of the relevant provisions of each convention, including the full official title, date and place of adoption, date of signature and entry into force, and the States Parties.

Part II reproduces the full texts of the conventions and their related protocols.

Each volume contains an index, Volume II having a consolidated index covering both volumes.

Volume I

535 pp. including Index
Price: Paperback £40 (US$80)

Published 1983
ISBN 92 807 1025 6

Volume II

Approx. 540 pp. including Consolidated Index
