

PART 4
ASTRONOMER'S HANDBOOK

177

22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31
32
33
34
35
36
37
38
39
40
41
42
43
44
45
46
47
48
49
50
51
52
53
54
55
56
57
58
59
60
61
62
63
64
65
66
67
68
69
70
71
72
73
74
75
76
77
78
79
80
81
82
83
84
85
86
87
88
89
90
91
92
93
94
95
96
97
98
99
100

ASTRONOMER'S HANDBOOK

The Astronomer's Handbook (IAU Transactions XIIC, edited by J.-C. Pecker, IAU Transactions XIIIIB, edited by L. Perek, and IAU Transactions XIVB, edited by C. de Jager and A. Jappel) contains documents of permanent importance. Only the parts changed after the XVth General Assembly are supplemented here.

I. SHORT HISTORY OF THE INTERNATIONAL ASTRONOMICAL UNION

Table 2 of IAU Trans. XIIC should be supplemented as follows:

XVth General Assembly, 1973, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia
Members of the Union, after the General Assembly	3188
Adhering Countries	47
Participants in the General Assembly (Members 698)	840
Number of Commissions	40
Volumes of Transactions A	pp. VIII+760
B	pp. IX+334
Highlights 1973	pp. X+574
President: L. Goldberg	1973-1976
General Secretary: G. Contopoulos	1973-1976
Assistant General Secretary: Edith A. Müller	1973-1976
Vice-Presidents: J. G. Bolton	1973-1979
Ch. Fehrenbach	1973-1979
W. Iwanowska	1973-1979

II. ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCES OF THE UNION

A. ADMINISTRATION

The address of the Secretariat is:

International Astronomical Union
University
Thessaloniki
Greece

The Secretariat is headed by the General Secretary, G. Contopoulos. The staff of the office consists of the Executive Secretary, A. Jappel, the Administrative Assistant, Mrs J. Daňková, the Secretary to the office, Miss D. Mori and a typist.

All problems related to Symposia and Colloquia are dealt with by the Assistant General Secretary

Prof. Edith A. Müller
Observatoire de Genève
CH-1290 Sauverny
Suisse