

Biography

David Gee has more than twenty-five years' experience working in academic libraries and legal information management and is currently Deputy Librarian & Academic Services Manager at the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies in the University of London. He was a member of the BIALL Council and a senior member of the Editorial Board of Legal Information Management for many years and has written a number of articles for UK and international professional journals. For eight years he was a member of the CPD25 Steering Group and Chair of the CPD25 Career Development Group (CPD25 is the training arm of the M25 Consortium of Higher Education Libraries in the London Area: <http://www.cpd25.ac.uk>). In 2011 he was appointed 'member-at-large' of the Scholarships Committee of the International Association of Law Libraries (IALL) and undertook an extensive survey of major law libraries around the world which was published in the International Journal of Legal Information and is available in pre-print format at: <http://ials.sas.ac.uk/library/lawlibs/report.htm>. In 2012 he was awarded the Chartered Management Institute (CMI) Level 5 Diploma in Management and Leadership (equivalent to degree-level) and is currently a CMI Chartered Manager. He was a Visiting Fellow at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law in Hamburg in September 2012. In July 2013 he was elected to the Board of the International Association of Law Libraries (IALL) as a member for the 2013–2016 term, and in July 2016 he was elected to the IALL Board as Secretary for the 2016–2019 term.
