

Editor's Notes

Change of Editor

This issue and the second issue of volume 19, which will appear at the end of November 1996, will be the last ones to be edited by Åke Viberg. After that there will be a change of editor. The new editor for volumes 20 to 22 will be Urpo Nikanne (University of Oslo, Dept. of East European and Oriental Studies, P.O. Box 1030 Blindern, N-0315 Oslo, Norway; email: urpo.nikanne@easteur-orient.uio.no) and the new review editor will be Jan-Ola Östman (University of Helsinki, Dept. of English, P.O. Box 4, FIN-00014, University of Helsinki, Finland; email: jan-ola.ostman@helsinki.fi). All articles and reviews should from now on be submitted directly to them.

A Note from the New Editors

As we are taking over the editorship of NJL, we take this opportunity of thanking Åke Viberg and Maria Koptevskaja Tamm for their work as editors. It will be a real challenge to step into their shoes, but with your support we will do our utmost to keep up the high standards of NJL.

Call for Papers: Adjuncts

The practice of engaging guest editors to produce every second issue will be continued. The second issue of Vol. 19 (1996) will be devoted to "Language Contact and Language Change" and will be edited by Åke Viberg.

The second issue of Vol. 20 (1997) will be devoted to "Adjuncts" (i.e. adverbials, attributes, and other non-selected syntactic elements) and will be edited by Riitta Korhonen and Maria Vilkuna. Readers are hereby invited to send them their contributions by 31 January 1997. (Address: Research Institute for the Languages of Finland, Sörnäisten rantatie 25, FIN-00500, Helsinki, Finland.)
