Scottish Journal of Theology is an international journal of systematic, historical and biblical theology. Since its establishment in 1948, it has become one of the world's leading theological journals. As well as publishing original research articles, each issue contains an article review consisting of an article-length review of a recent book, with a reply from the author. Scottish Journal of Theology provides an ecumenical forum for debate, and engages in extensive reviewing of theological and biblical literature.

The Cambridge History of Christianity

The Cambridge History of Christianity offers a comprehensive chronological account of the development of Christianity from its beginnings to the present day. Each volume makes a substantial contribution in its own right to the scholarship of its period and the complete History constitutes a major work of academic reference.

www.cambridge.org/historychristianity

Volume 2: Constantine to c.600

Edited by Augustine Casiday and Frederick W. Norris

This volume presents the 'Golden Age' of patristic Christianity. It discusses the rapid transformation of the religion during this period.

August 2007

978-0-521-81244-3 | HB | c. £100.00

Volume 6: Reform and Expansion 1500–1660

Edited by R. Po-chia Hsia

This authoritative volume presents the history of Christianity from the eve of the Protestant Reformation to the height of Catholic Reform.

July 2007

978-0-521-81162-0 | HB | c. £100.00

Also available

A History of Global Anglicanism

Kevin Ward

Kevin Ward shows how African, Asian, Oceanic, Caribbean and Latin American Anglicans are now decisively shaping what it means to be Anglican, questioning the assumption that Anglicanism is irredeemably English.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Submissions

Materials submitted for publication should be sent to the Editor, Professor John M.G. Barclay, at john.barclay@durham.ac.uk (Mail address: Department of Theology and Religion, Durham University, Abbey House, Palace Green, Durham DH1 3RS, UK). Contributors are requested to send one electronic copy in Microsoft Word or Word Perfect and simultaneously a second copy in pdf format. If pdf-submission is not possible, they are required to send two copies of the typescript to the above mail address, retaining a third copy for checking proofs.

The author should certify that the article is not being submitted simultaneously to some other journal and explain to the editor the extent of any overlap with books or articles the author has published or is likely to publish in the near future. Articles that appear elsewhere in the same or a different language should not be submitted to this journal.

Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

Manuscript preparation

New Testament Studies accepts contributions in English, French and German. All articles submitted for publication in this journal are expected to conform to the requirements of the full instructions for contributors which can be found at http://assets.cambridge.org/NTS/NTS\_ifc.pdf

Submissions should not normally be longer than 8,500 words, including footnotes (i.e. about 20 pages of the current NTS format). All materials should be double-spaced, including footnotes and citations. Special materials (e.g. lists, tables, charts, diagrams) should be typed on sheets separate from the main text, and the location of such material in the main text should be indicated clearly (e.g. 'insert chart 1 here'). Contributors are asked to supply an abstract of their article, not exceeding 100 words in length, and a list of up to six keywords (for on-line searching). Short studies may be supplied without an abstract.

On acceptance of a submission, contributors will be asked to send a final form of the article electronically in both word format (Microsoft Word or Word Perfect) and pdf format; they will also be asked to supply a copy of any font used in the article. They will be expected to check and correct first proofs of their article after it has been typeset.

Proofs

Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Offprints

Authors of articles and short studies will receive a pdf file of their contribution upon publication.
