
Politics and Change in Developing Countries

Studies in the Theory and Practice of Development

Edited by COLIN LEYS

Brings together work by British political scientists on political change in developing areas. It also includes papers by an economist, an economic historian and a social anthropologist illustrating the contribution of these disciplines.

45s. net

An Introduction to Spanish-American Literature

JEAN FRANCO

'Admirably fulfils the programme of its title; as an initiation for the beginner and as a work of reference, it is unequalled. . . . In dealing with recent Latin-American fiction Professor Franco avoids the dangerous euphoria that characterizes the comments of so many critics while still recognizing the considerable merit of the novels in question.'

The Times Literary Supplement

65s. net

Cambridge Latin American Studies 6

The Abolition of the Brazilian Slave Trade

Britain, Brazil and the Slave Trade Question, 1807-1869

LESLIE BETHELL

Dr Bethell explains how Britain declared the Brazilian slave trade illegal, why it proved impossible to suppress it for twenty years afterwards, and how it was finally abolished. He covers a major aspect of the history of the abolition of the slave trade and makes an important contribution to the study of Anglo-Brazilian relations.

90s. net

Cambridge Latin American Studies 5

Parties & Political Change in Bolivia,

1880-1952

HERBERT S. KLEIN

The Bolivian National Revolution of 1952 was one of the few Latin American revolutions that was social, economic and political. Professor Klein analyzes its causes, discussing the mutation of Bolivia's stable two-party régime and the rise of class politics and social revolutionary movements in the middle decades of the twentieth century.

90s. net

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

L.A.S.—back

New and recent books on Latin America

Marxism in Latin America

Luis Aguilar

The evolution of Marxist ideology in Latin America presented through the writings of such politically diverse figures as Karl Marx, Jose Marti, Jose Carlos Mariategui, Silvio Frondizi and Che Guevara

288 pages 26s paper

The Liberator Simon Bolivar

David Bushnell

This study of Simon Bolivar contains both an introductory essay on Bolivar and an anthology of writings by and about him. The selections provide an introduction to his ideas and actions as well as various interpretations of his life and work

256 pages 26s paper

Intervention in Latin America

C Neale Ronning

This collection of essays and documents focuses on acts of intervention in Latin America since the nineteenth century

288 pages 26s paper

Revolution in Mexico

James W Wilkie and Albert L Michaels

Combining the approaches of a reader and a narrative history, the authors present a wide range of views about the revolutionary period in Mexico

288 pages 26s paper

Why Peron came to Power

Joseph R Barager

This study analyses those aspects of Argentine society which made it possible for Peron to come to power and describes how he created a mass popular following

288 pages 26s paper

Nationalism in Latin America

Samuel L Baily

These articles focus on the most important aspects of nationalism in Latin America from the late 18th Century to the present. The book emphasises the different national characteristics of Argentina, Brazil and Mexico, and demolishes the misleading image of a uniform political mentality "south of the border"

256 pages Spring 1970 26s paper

A Century of Brazilian History since 1865

Richard Graham

This collection of readings on major issues in Brazilian history includes articles both by prominent Brazilian figures and American historians. The introduction surveys the nation's history and places the readings in a national and cultural setting

233 pages 26s paper

also in the series

- Marvin Bernstein Foreign Investment in Latin America 23s paper
E Bradford Burns A Documentary History of Brazil 28s paper
Donald Marquand Dozer The Monroe Doctrine 26s paper
Hugh M Hamill Jnr Dictatorship in Latin America 28s paper
Lewis Hanke Do the Americas Have a Common History? 26s paper
Humphreys and Lynch The Origins of the Latin American Revolutions 1808–1826 28s paper
Juan and Ulloa A Voyage to South America 28s paper
Magnus Morner The Expulsion of the Jesuits from Latin America 28s paper
Richard Morse The Bandeirantes 28s paper
Frederick B Pike The Conflict Between Church and State in Latin America 28s paper
Stanley R Ross Is the Mexican Revolution Dead? 28s paper
Robert Freeman Smith Background to Revolution 28s paper
T Lynn Smith Agrarian Reform in Latin America 23s paper
Charles Wagley Amazon Town 23s paper
Gilberto Freyre The Masters and the Slaves 28s paper

Alfred A Knopf New York
Available from Tabs Educational
28 Norfolk St London WC2 01-836 8626

Labor and Development in Latin America

By Joseph R. Ramos

Analyses the role of the labour force in Latin American development since the Second World War, inquires into the nature of the various shifts in the composition of the labour force, and explains their economic determinants.

320 pages 113s

Race and Class in Latin America

Edited by Magnus Mörner

Deals with the abolition of slavery and its aftermath, with special reference to Mexico, Uruguay, and Brazil; deals with immigration, stratification, and race relations; and Indian problems in Mexico, Middle America, and Peru.

356 pages 90s

Crisis in Brazil

By Octavio Ianni

Traces political and economic developments in Brazil since the 1964 coup d'état. Octavio Ianni sees that coup as the boundary between the area of popular democracy and the present stage of dependency relations in the capitalistic system.

224 pages 68s

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

70 GREAT RUSSELL STREET
LONDON WC1

Underdevelopment in Spanish America

KEITH GRIFFIN

Written from a 'structuralist point of view the book contains discussions of all the major issues affecting the region's development. 'One of the claims made on the jacket is that the book might become a textbook for experienced undergraduates or postgraduate students. One very much hopes that it will, if the purpose of textbooks is to open up a subject rather than to freeze it into existing casts of thought.' The Economist

63s

Allen & Unwin

BULLETIN OF HISPANIC STUDIES

A quarterly review
published by the
Liverpool University Press

Editor

GEOFFREY RIBBANS

Assistant Editor

H. B. HALL

Editorial Committee: W. C. Atkinson, R. F. Brown, A. A. Parker, F. Pierce, J. W. Rees, P. E. Russell, A. E. Sloman, W. Starkie, Arthur Terry, E. M. Wilson.

Editorial communications to the Editor, Bulletin of Hispanic Studies, The University, P.O. Box 147, Liverpool, L69 3BX.

Annual subscription, postage included: £2, $6.00 or 325 pesetas. Write Bulletin of Hispanic Studies, Liverpool University Press, 123 Grove Street, Liverpool, L7 7AF.

The Politics of Brazilian Development, 1930-1954

John D. Wirth. This study increases our understanding of Brazilian politics during the era of Getúlio Vargas by presenting detailed case studies of three key economic issues of the time; the foreign trade policy of the 1930's, the decision to build the Volta Redonda steelworks, and the birth of Petrobrás, Brazil's state oil monopoly. A primary objective is to explain these policies in terms of their immediate historical context. $7.95

A Portuguese-English Dictionary

REVISED

James L. Taylor. New printing, with corrections and additions by the author and Priscilla Clark Martin. More than 800 revised and expanded definitions are included in this new printing of the first dictionary that attempts to cover Brazilian Portuguese with its many unusual words and usages. "All who have deplored the unavailability of a serviceable Portuguese-English dictionary . . . will welcome Mr. Taylor's 60,000 entry answer to this need."
—Library Journal. $15.00

Daily Life of the Aztecs

ON THE EVE OF THE SPANISH CONQUEST

Jacques Soustelle. "Probably the best general summary available of Aztec culture, both for the general reader and for the student."
—Hispanic American Historical Review. "An able condensation of the enormous mass of material on Aztec life. . . . Soustelle embellishes his faithful picture of Mexican life with many acute, well-turned observations."—Man. Paper, $2.95

Order from your bookstore, please

STANFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

L.A.S.—back *

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions are invited from all parts of the world. Articles should generally not be more than 8,000 words long, and two copies, typed with double-spacing, should be submitted. Diagrams and maps may be included by arrangement with the editors. The journal is published in English, but articles written in other languages will be considered, and arrangements made as required for translation into English. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for use in correcting proofs.

All contributions and editorial correspondence should be addressed to Journal of Latin American Studies, Institute of Latin American Studies, 31 Tavistock Square, London, W.C.1.

Each contributor will receive, free of charge, 25 offprints of his article and a copy of the issue of the journal in which it appears.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

DR DAVID A. PRESTON is Lecturer in Geography at the University of Leeds.

DR WESTON H. AGOR is Assistant Professor of Political Science at Wisconsin State University, Oshkosh.

DR ALBERT L. MICHAELS is Assistant Professor of History at the University of New York at Buffalo.

DR W. M. MATHEW is Lecturer in Economic History at the University of Leicester.

Journal of Latin American Studies

Volume 2 Part 1 May 1970

ARTICLES

- DAVID A. PRESTON: New Towns—A Major Change in the Rural Settlement Pattern in Highland Bolivia 1-27
- WESTON H. AGOR: Autonomy of Standing Committees in the Chilean Senate 29-50
- ALBERT L. MICHAELS: The Crisis of Cardenismo 51-79
- W. M. MATHEW: The First Anglo-Peruvian Debt and its Settlement, 1822-49 81-98

REVIEWS by

- G. H. S. Bushnell, 99-100; David J. Fox, 100-101; P. J. Bakewell, 101; Stephen Clissold, 102; Simon Collier, 102-103; Leslie Bethell, 103-104; J. T. Winpenny, 104-105; Francis Lambert, 106-107; George Pendle, 107-108; D. A. G. Waddell, 108-109; David Wall, 109-110; Peter Calvert, 110-112.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

Bentley House, 200 Euston Road, London, N.W.1

American Branch: 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022

Single parts 35s. net in U.K. ($5.50 in U.S.A.)

Subscription price 50s. net in U.K. ($8.50 in U.S.A.)

Printed in Great Britain by The Eastern Press Ltd., London and Reading