

EDMUND WILLIAM HILL

1906–1975

MR. HILL died on May 13, 1975, having retired in 1970 after fifty years service in the Squire Law Library. This Journal (vol. 29, p. 2) contained on that occasion a full appreciation of those services and also of Hill's character which made him a memorable figure to generations of Cambridge law students. We confine ourselves therefore to recording the event of his death which will be learned with regret by many not only in but outside Cambridge and in many parts of the world.
