

Publications in Mediaeval Studies

THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

A series of studies in the several branches of mediaeval learning, but especially in the theology and philosophy of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries. It is to include critical studies of mediaeval writers and their works, critical editions of texts, doctrinal, historical and literary studies.

A volume of these studies will appear at least annually. The volume will be bound in blue cloth covers with gold stampings and in brown paper covers. Published in October, 1940:

Joannis Dominici Lucula Noctis. By Edmund Hunt.

Previous volumes:

The Works of Peter of Poitiers, Master in Theology and Chancellor of Paris (1193-1205). By P. S. Moore.

Commentarius Cantabrigiensis in epistolas Pauli e schola Petri Abaelardi: 1. In epistolam ad Romanos. 2. In epistolam ad Corinthios I<sup>am</sup> et II<sup>am</sup>, ad Galatas et ad Ephiosios. By Artur Landgraf.

Petri Pictaviensis allegoriae super tabernaculum Moysi. By P. S. Moore and James A. Corbett.

A discount of 10% is offered to subscribers to the series and to libraries and learned societies. Exchanges with reviews and learned publications are welcome.

ADDRESS: Publications in Mediaeval Studies
The University of Notre Dame
Notre Dame, Indiana, (U.S.A.)

A DIALECTIC OF MORALS

by

Mortimer J. Adler

“... a distillation of actual arguments which President Hutchins and I have had with students in courses directed to the reading of great works in ethics and politics . . .”

PRICE: $1.80 (Cloth Bound)

Address orders to

THE REVIEW OF POLITICS, Notre Dame, Indiana

DEMOCRACY OR ANARCHY?

A Study of Proportional Representation

By F. A. Hermens

Associate Professor of Politics, University of Notre Dame

Preface by C. J. Friedrich

Professor of Government, Harvard University

“... a well documented scholarly analysis of the failure of proportional representation where it has been tried, and of the appalling contribution which this gadget has made to the growth of communism, fascism, and other undemocratic phenomena . . .” — Robert Moses, Political Science Quarterly.

Price, $4.00

THE REVIEW OF POLITICS

University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana