

Essays in the Philosophy of Religion

Based on the Sarum Lectures 1971

H. H. PRICE

The first essay is a discussion of the relations between fear and love in religious experience. The main topic of the remaining essays is the relevance of psychical research to some important questions in the philosophy of religion. Among the subjects discussed are the relation between petitionary prayer and telepathy, the concept of inspiration, and the concept of 'another world'. £2.25

The Epistolae Vagantes of Pope Gregory VII

Edited and translated by H. E. J. COWDREY

The Register of Pope Gregory VII (1073–85) was edited in 1920–3 by E. Caspar, and edition of his privileges by L. Santifaller followed in 1957. The present volume includes all the letters and similar material from Gregory's Chancery which did not fall within Caspar's and Santifaller's scope. The Latin text is accompanied by a facing English translation and brief historical notes. £5 Oxford Medieval Texts

METHODIOS FOUYAS

Archbishop Methodios examines the causes of disagreement between the churches, the growth of dialogue, and the moves towards reconciliation which have developed so remarkably in the last fifty years. £4.50

Ecumenical Progress

A Decade of Change in the Ecumenical Movement
1961–1971

NORMAN GOODALL

Dr Goodall's book The Ecumenical Movement: What it is and what it Does was published in 1961. The years since then have seen a great increase in the relative importance of the less-developed countries of Asia, Africa, and South America in relation to the Western world; in matters of faith and order there have been all the changes associated with the Second Vatican Council and parallel movements in other churches. This new volume brings these factors clearly into perspective. £3

The Journal and Major Essays of John Woolman

Edited by PHILLIPS P. MOULTON

This journal of John Woolman is a recognized classic. This is the first edition to reflect with fidelity and scholarly accuracy the intention of this American Quaker preacher. £4.75 OUP New York of the essays on religious literature by

EMMA FRIEDER

ALTAR FIRES

Essays in Sacred Literature
3rd Edition

A rich and allusive study of the Old and New Testaments, both the historical background and the literary content.

"... stimulating . . . makes the patriarchal characters of those distant times more effectively alive and meaningful than any interpretive chronicle I have ever read . . . Miss Frieder writes with the soul of a poet, a heart that is open to all humanity, and a mind dedicated to the search for the eternal verities . . . does not espouse the cause of any denominational doctrine or dogma, but writes as one concerned solely with overcoming the powers of evil in the world, and in directing humanity to a higher and nobler way of life."

—William J. Fielding

ESSAYS IN RELIGION

2nd Edition

A "symposium": Jewish-Christian scriptures vis-à-vis the sacred literature of the East and the ancient Near East.

Followed by The Middle Years (on the rapport among European and Near Eastern Jewish, Moslem and Christian intellectual communities during the Middle Ages); The Inquisition; Christ and Buddha; and Paul and Felix—on the work of Felix Adler, founder of the Ethical Culture movement.

$5.00 each volume, clothbound, at select bookstores, or direct from the publisher postpaid.

An indispensable reference for scholars and students of the Church...

The Official Record of the Decisions of the ROMAN ROTA

This unique series of documents constitutes the most authoritative collection ever assembled of Decisions by the Sacred Roman Rota of the Catholic Church. It presents the rulings which the Rota, since its reconstitution as an ecclesiastical tribunal in 1908, has handed down on a vast number of matrimonial, ecclesiastical, and criminal cases. Unlike all previous collections of its kind, Sacrae romanae rotae decisiones seu sententiae contains a complete, definitive record of Rotal decisions, compiled annually under the Rota's own supervision.

These superb volumes are an invaluable source of information regarding the Church's legal and moral attitudes and precepts. In addition, they strikingly illuminate many of the important changes taking place within the modern Church. Because of its profound historical significance, this magnificent work will find a lasting place among the annals of Church history.

OXFORD BOOKS FOR STUDENTS

OXFORD EARLY CHRISTIAN TEXTS

Tertullian: Adversus Marcionem

Edited and translated by Ernest Evans

This work comprises the Latin text of Tertullian's five books, with a select apparatus criticus; and, on pages facing the Latin, an English version with brief explanatory notes. There is also a short introduction on Marcionism and its significance, and on Tertullian's opposition to it. Two volumes £8

Athenagoras: Legatio and De Resurrectione

Edited and translated by William R. Schoedel, Professor of Classics and Director of Religious Studies, University of Illinois, Urbana

In the Legatio Athenagoras deals with the charge of 'atheism' so often levelled against the early Church in the Roman Empire. His efforts to reorientate the social and religious ideas of the Romans helps us to see the situation as many early Christians must have seen it, and this makes the work of great importance to the historian and theologian. £2·50

The Acts of the Christian Martyrs

Introduction, Texts and Translation by

Herbert Musurillo, Professor of Classics, Fordham University

This new text offers a complete critical edition of all the authentic Acts of the Christian Martyrs from the earliest times down to Diocletian, with a general introduction reviewing the various problems connected with persecution. The light these texts throw on the beliefs and practices traditional in the early Church is of interest to historians and theologians alike. £6

Cyprian: De Lapsis and
*De Ecclesiae Catholicae Unitate

Translated by Maurice Bénévent, Lecturer in Ecclesiology and Patristics, Heythrop College

The Latin text has been critically established anew from the manuscripts. That of the De Lapsis is here published for the first time, that of the De Unitate is reproduced from the author's The Tradition of Manuscripts (1961). The translations are drawn from Ancient Christian Writers: vol. 25. £1·75

Athanasius: Contra Gentes and *De Incarnatione

Edited by Robert W. Thomson, Professor of Armenian, Harvard University

Despite the importance of Athanasius's Contra Gentes—De Incarnatione no critical edition has previously been published. One of its most interesting features is that two recensions are known. The longer, authentically Athanasian one is here translated into English, while the variants of the 'short' (unauthentic) version have been indicated in the apparatus to the Greek text. £3·25

BUDDHISM IN CHINA

A Historical survey

By Kenneth Ch'en

"It is refreshing to read a work by an eminent Buddhologist which is perfectly balanced in its attention to historical context and to the institutional and intellectual evolution of Buddhism in China."—Choice. "Professor Kenneth Ch'en brings a precious contribution to Buddhist studies with this book. ... Not only does it fill an important gap in research, but it is composed and written in a masterly manner."

SHAMANISM

Archaic Techniques of Ecstasy

By Mircea Eliade

"Eliade writes of the shamans with that masterly combination of sympathy and detachment that he also showed in a previous, clear-headed study—Yoga: Immortality and Freedom. ... The work of this important scholar gains yearly in effect."—Gerald Sykes, New York Times. "Clearly the best work on Shamanism published so far."—R. A. Stein, The Review of Religion

The Mythological Tradition and Its Place in Renaissance Humanism and Art

By Jean Seznec

"Here at last is a book... which tells us what became of the gods after the fall of Rome, in what strange disguises they lived on, and how they emerged in the Quattrocento with odd attributes and symbols the ancients never knew. ... It is a formidable task, demanding vast learning in many fields; and it is brilliantly performed."—Times Literary Supplement
