

CONFERENCE ON NEW DIRECTIONS IN THE ANTHROPOLOGY OF DANCE; Indiana University, March 21-23, 1974.

-from Conference Program

The sponsoring institutions of the conference from the Indiana University were: Committee on International Conferences and Seminars, African Studies Program, Department of Anthropology, Glenn Black Laboratory, Latin American Studies Program and Uralic and Altaic Studies. An additional sponsor was the International Research and Exchanges Board.

The conference coordinator was Anya Peterson Royce and participants were: Irmgard Bartenieff, Judith Lynne Hanna, Adrienne Kaeppler, Joann W. Kealiinohomoku, György Martin, Alan P. Merriam, Gabriel Moedano, Allegra Fuller Snyder and Robert F. Thompson.

Conference sessions dealt with "Summaries of Areal Dance Research", "Methodology and Teaching", "Psychological and Structural Approaches to Dance", "Dance Symbolism" and "Urbanization and the Dance".

Details of this conference will be forthcoming, the fall issue of CORD News, VOL VII/1