PURPOSE AND EDITORIAL POLICY

The International Journal of Legal Information, the official publication of the International Association of Law Libraries, is issued three times a year: Spring, Summer, Winter. It seeks to advance the exchange of legal information throughout the world. Under the direction of its international editorial board and advisors, the IJLI serves the global community of law librarians, legal scholars, and practitioners through the publication of original articles, conference papers, bibliographies, book reviews, documents concerning law and law-related information. The views expressed in such contributions are the responsibility of the individual authors and do not imply the endorsement of the International Association of Law Libraries.

An international conference assessing Democracy and the Rule of Law in a Changing World Order, co-sponsored by the Library of Congress and the New York University School of Law, is scheduled for the week of March 6-10, 2000, with sessions in Washington, D.C. and in New York City. The conference, which is open to the public, will focus on seven significant areas of the law where changing needs and evolving legislation and decisions create a dynamic legal context.

Updates on the conference will be posted on the LC internet site (www.loc.gov) under Bicentennial Home Page/Symposia. For more information, contact R. M. Clemandot in the Law Library of Congress: (202) 707-5067 or email: rcle@loc.gov.
