INDEX TO VOLUME IX	641

Starting with Volume X, No. 1, January 1968, The Journal of Inter-American Studies will include a book review section which will be edited by H. W. Hutchinson, professor of anthropology at the Center for Advanced International Studies, University of Miami. Dr. Hutchinson, who received his Ph.D. at Columbia University, has done extensive field research in addition to his teaching experience in Brazilian and U.S. universities.

Because of its interdisciplinary nature, the Journal will be interested in examining material dealing with Latin America on a wide range of subjects. Major works will be reviewed in Spanish, English, Portuguese or French by specialists while others will be given a brief, descriptive notice. Occasionally, related books will be treated together in a review article.

Readers who are interested in reviewing books are invited to write Dr. Hutchinson, Book Review Editor, Journal of Inter-American Studies, P.O. Box 8123, University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida 33124.
