Appearing in your local bookshop

From 8th - 22nd November!

Just some of the world's foremost practitioners, critics and scholars of Theatre and Performance Studies whose writings are published by Routledge, and whose books can be seen in, and bought from, special displays in leading bookshops throughout the UK, from 8th - 22nd November.

Routledge is the leading publisher of Theatre and Performance Studies books, and each special book display will feature the best of our books, across our diverse range, including:

- indispensable handbooks - John Rudlin's Commedia dell'Arte
- passionate polemics - Rustom Bharucha's Theatre and the World
- classic textbooks - Richard Schechner's Performance Theory.

Whatever your particular field of interest - theatre history, performance theory, dance studies, theatre craft - Routledge publishes books that challenge, stimulate and provoke, and we believe, help shape the future of Theatre and Performance Studies.
