

Presidential Address

APSA President Theda Skocpol delivers the annual presidential address. Skocpol is the Victor S. Thomas Professor of Government and Sociology at Harvard University where her work focuses on the decline of civil society. (Thurs/8:30)

Pi Sigma Alpha Lecture

Two-time Pulitzer Prize winner Robert Caro delivers the annual Pi Sigma Alpha lecture. A master of the biography, Caro's works on Robert Moses and Lyndon B. Johnson represent two of the most extensive and comprehensive looks at men of power. (Thurs/6:15)

A Conversation with Paul Volcker

Former Federal Reserve Chairman Paul Volcker discusses the challenges, choices, and opportunities facing the public service, governance, and globalization in a plenary sponsored by the Public Administration section. (Thurs/2:15)

A Centennial Celebration

Help APSA mark one hundred years. Following APSA President Theda Skocpol's address on Thursday evening, APSA will host its premier event—the Centennial Celebration Reception in the Grand Hall of the Pennsylvania Convention Center. The event will include food, drink, and music. Be sure to join us for this special occasion.

APSA PROGRAM AT A GLANCE

Facing Forward and Looking Back: Democracy and Justice in a Century of Change

NEW TIMES	Wednesday August 27	Thursday August 28
8:00–9:45am		panel sessions
10:00–11:45am		panel sessions
12:00 -2:00pm	Short Courses (9:00am–5:00pm)	APSA Awards Ceremony
2:15–4:00pm		panel sessions
4:15–6:00pm		panel sessions
6:15–7:00pm	Honors Reception (6:00–8:00pm)	Pi Sigma Alpha Lecture
		BUSINESS MEETINGS
7:00–8:30pm		RECEPTIONS
8:30–9:30pm		Presidential Address
10:30–12:00am		Centennial Celebration Reception 9:30–11:30pm

John Gaus Lecture

Influential administration and organizational theory scholar Johan P. Olsen offers the John Gaus Lecture. Olsen is co-research director of the Advanced Research on the Europeanization of the Nation State (ARENA) program at the University of Oslo. (Fri/6:15)

An Evening with John Sweeney

AFL-CIO President John Sweeney addresses the impacts and concerns of globalization and the future of organized labor in a plenary session sponsored by the New Political Science section. (Sat/8:00)

Here's a quick look at the new schedule for this year's Annual Meeting. Be sure to check out the Preliminary Program in this issue to review all of the theme panels and plenaries.

	Friday August 29	Saturday August 30	Sunday August 31
	panel sessions	panel sessions	panel sessions
	panel sessions	panel sessions	panel sessions
	Centennial Programming	Centennial Programming
	panel sessions	panel sessions
	panel sessions	panel sessions
	John Gaus Lecture	Centennial Programming
	BUSINESS MEETINGS	BUSINESS MEETINGS
	RECEPTION: Honoring Teaching and Undergraduate Education	RECEPTIONS
	Ralph Bunche Centennial Lecture	Centennial Programming
	NIGHTCAP RECEPTIONS	NIGHTCAP RECEPTIONS

Discussing Wealth and Democracy with Kevin Phillips

Noted author and national commentator Kevin Phillips discusses his latest book, Wealth and Democracy. Four members of APSA's Task Force on Inequality and Democracy will serve as discussants. (Sat/12:00)

Debating National Service with E. J. Dionne

Brookings Institution senior fellow and national commentator E. J. Dionne leads a session exploring the National Service and the Future of Citizenship. (Sat/8:00)

Ralph Bunche Lecture by Fareed Zakaria

Newsweek International Editor and foreign policy commentator Fareed Zakaria delivers the Ralph Bunche Centennial Lecture. He is also author of The Future of Freedom. (Fri/8:30)