THE COMPLETE REFERENCE GUIDE TO U.N. SALES PUBLICATIONS 1946-78

M.E. Birchfield, J. Coolman

No more guesswork! Finally a professional reference tool has been created which affords immediate and effective identification and access to all titles published by the U.N. since its inception in 1946. Thousands of publications, over thirty years of the predominant political, social, legal, and economic issues of world interest. This prodigious output is identified, cataloged and indexed. THE COMPLETE REFERENCE GUIDE is arranged in two volumes, I-The complete catalog, compiled alphabetically by symbol. II-The indexes, providing access by sales number, symbol, title and subject (key word in context). The KWIK index has been computer generated in association with the University of California, San Diego. A special feature of the catalog is annotation of material available in microfiche, both current and retrospective.

SHEPARD'S FEDERAL TAX CITATIONS

The Tax Citator
That Did Not Have To Get Complex
to Be Complete . . .

New decisions, dismissals, affirmances and repeals come along every day from the U.S. Tax Court, U.S. Supreme Court, other federal courts and the Internal Revenue Service. For every lawyer whose practice touches on any phase of taxation, a complete system for researching tax decisions is vital to your efficiency.

Here is a listing of the outstanding features you'll find in the Federal Tax Citations:

Cross References—The Tax citator cross-references Prentice-Hall's American Federal Tax Reports and Commerce Clearing House's United States Tax Cases to each other and to federal court tax cases reported in West Publishing Company's National Reporter System, Lawyers' Edition, United States Supreme Court Reports, Lawyers' Edition and United States Supreme Court Reports.

Citations to statutory law (Title 26 of the United States Code).

Citations to Treasury Regulations (Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations).

Citations to all federal tax cases including United States Tax Court regular and memorandum decisions.

Citations to Treasury Decisions.

Citations to Revenue Rulings and Revenue Procedures.

Citations to administrative orders, rulings, memorandums and opinions.

"Citing" documents include federal tax cases, state court decisions, law reviews and law journals, legal texts and ALR annotations.
