A Parametric Approach to Case Alternation Phenomena in Japanese

by Masahiro Morikawa

This well-researched study modifies and develops the grammatical sub-theory of Abstract Case in the Government and Binding theory of Chomsky in order to account for the many patterns of noun phrase Case-marking in Japanese that have resisted unified explanation in earlier generative grammar. A must read for scholars and serious students of the subject.

Ninchi-Bunpoo Ron (The Theory of Cognitive Grammar) written in Japanese

by Masa-aki YAMANASHI (Kyoto University)

4326YEN

An original and illuminating book of cognitive linguistics. The book explores a variety of crucial linguistic phenomena which reveal the cognitive mechanism of our mind and language. The topics investigated in this book include: e.g. metaphor and metonymy, image schemas, polysemy and prototype, semantic change, grammaticalization, event structure, visual vector and mental scanning, etc. The book is highly recommended to anyone interested (or engaged) in linguistics, literary criticism, psychology, computer science and related fields of cognitive science.

Over The Tower of Babel

Linguistics Abstracts

Edited by David Crystal

Linguistics Abstracts provides a simple means for everyone in research in the field of linguistics of keeping up to date with any specialized area of the subject. Its focus is the theory and practice of general linguistics, including all the traditionally recognized "core" areas of linguistic enquiry and their major interdisciplinary points of connection. More than 140 journals from over 20 countries are currently covered. Each issue is largely devoted to abstracts in English, specially written by a team of international contributors. There is an annual cumulative index.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Editorial address Professor Ian Roberts and Dr Robert D. Borsley, The Editors, Linguistics Department, School of English and Linguistics, University of Wales, Bangor, Gwynedd LL57 2DG, UK. (IR: I.G.Roberts@bangor.ac.uk RDB: R.D.Borsley@bangor.ac.uk).

Address for books for review and book reviews Dr Maggie Tallerman, Review Editor, Department of Linguistics and English Language, University of Durham, Elvet Riverside, Durham DH1 3JT, UK. (maggie.tallerman@durham.ac.uk).

Policy The Journal of Linguistics is concerned with all branches of linguistics (including phonetics). Preference is given to articles which make a substantial contribution to theoretical linguistics. Contributions are welcomed from linguists in all countries, and not merely from members of the Linguistics Association of Great Britain. The normal language of publication is English.

Preparation of manuscripts Contributors should submit three copies of their manuscript. Submitted papers will normally be read by two referees. The name(s) of the author(s) should not appear on the paper itself and, as far as possible, the author(s) should not be identifiable from the references in the text or the acknowledgements. Details of name(s), affiliation(s) and full postal and e-mail address(es) should be submitted on a separate sheet. Fax and telephone numbers should also be included.

The manuscript of an article should be accompanied by an abstract of about 100 words summarizing the content. The abstract will appear in the published version of a paper.

Manuscripts should be submitted on A4 paper (US 11" × 8½") with margins of at least 4cms (1½") on all four sides of each sheet. They may be single-spaced and double-sided. However, the manuscripts of papers accepted for publication must be fully double-spaced and single-sided, with the type no smaller than 12 points (12pt) throughout the manuscript. Any footnotes must be listed at the end of the manuscript and not at the bottom of individual pages. One copy of the final version should be submitted with a computer disk containing all electronic copy of the article. The type of hardware and software necessary to read the disk should be stated clearly.

A copy of the full set of Notes for Contributors is available from Dr Ewa Jaworska, Editorial Assistant, address as for the Editors (E.Jaworska@bangor.ac.uk).

Proofs First proofs only of articles, notes and discussion, review articles and book reviews, but not shorter notices, will be sent with the edited manuscript to the (first-named) author, who will be expected to correct them and return to their Editors, within three days of receipt.

Offprints 50 offprints will be supplied free of charge to authors of articles, notes and discussion and review articles. 25 offprints will be supplied free of charge to authors of book reviews and shorter notices. Further offprints may be purchased if they are ordered at proof stage.

THE LINGUISTICS ASSOCIATION OF GREAT BRITAIN

The Linguistics Association of Great Britain was founded in 1959 to promote the study of linguistics and to provide for its members both a forum for discussion and facilities for cooperation in furtherance of their interest in linguistics. The Association holds annual spring and autumn meetings, at which original papers are presented in plenary sessions and in workshops devoted to special interests.

Persons interested in linguistics are eligible for election as members, subject to the approval of the Committee. Subscribing members may receive the Journal of Linguistics at a substantial discount. Application forms for membership may be obtained from the Membership Secretary, address as below.
