

British Association for Behavioural Psychotherapy

ANNUAL CONFERENCE, 1991 AND 20th ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDATION OF THE BABP

St Cross, University of Oxford

23–24 July 1991 (Workshops) 25–27 July 1991 (Conference)

The 1991 Annual Conference will coincide with the 20th Anniversary of the foundation of the BABP. To mark this event, the annual conference will include a range of invited symposia, keynote speakers and other special events; special guest at the conference will be Professor Neil Jacobsen (President of the Association for the Advancement of Behavior Therapy).

It is intended that, throughout the conference, there will be at least three streams of presentations:

- General (including areas such as adult mental health, behavioural medicine, family/marital)
- Long-term Care (including areas such as schizophrenia, challenging behaviours, models of care)
- Children and People with Learning Disabilities

CALL FOR SYMPOSIA, OPEN PAPERS,
SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS AND POSTER PRESENTATIONS

Anyone wishing to convene a symposium, a special interest group or present an open paper or poster presentation should submit proposals to the address below. Symposia will be of 2 h duration; open paper presentations either 15 or 30 min, and special interest groups will be 2.5 h long. [As general guidance, special interest groups should be composed of a number of speakers (up to 6 and discussants) who are invited to talk for brief (5–10 min) periods, with the aim of promoting discussion in a seminar/workshop type format. Other formats would, of course, be considered.]

Deadlines:	Symposia	17 December 1990
	Open papers	1 April 1991
	Special interest groups	1 April 1991
	Posters	1 May 1991

Early submission is suggested, as spaces will be allocated as suitable submissions are received
