Religion, State & Society

EDITOR

Dr Philip Walters

Keston Institute, Oxford, UK

Religion, State & Society is the only English-language academic publication devoted to issues of church, state and society in the former communist countries. The journal reflects the conviction that the experiences of religious communities in their encounter with communism are central to the evolution of the new Europe and of the Western world in general in the next century. Tackling social, cultural, ethnic, political and ecclesiological problems is a cooperative effort, in a way hitherto impossible, involving religious communities of both East and West.

Religion, State & Society will continue to monitor the experiences of religious communities in communist and former communist countries throughout the world, serving as a forum for debate on issues of global concern.

As well as authoritative and provocative articles, Religion, State & Society includes book reviews, bibliographies and translations of important documents. The journal encourages debate within the pages of a single issue and in the form of responses to articles which have appeared in earlier issues.

This journal is also available online.

let our open linking network shed some light.

This journal is CrossRef-ed! As a scientist or scholar navigating digital content, you've come to expect dynamic linking from citation to original source. As an author, you expect ready dissemination of your work to others. CrossRef is a collaborative, cross-publisher reference linking network that allows users to click on a citation and be taken directly to the full-text location. An independent, non-profit organization that employs open standards, CrossRef was established in cooperation with leading research publishers and the International DOI Foundation. Since the service went live in 2000, CrossRef has linked millions of articles from thousands of journals. Find out more at www.crossref.org, and make sure all your electronically published work is CrossRef-enabled.

NATIONALITIES PAPERS is the only journal in the world which deals exclusively with all nationalities of the former USSR, and also with national minorities in Eastern and Central European countries. The problems and importance of over 140 million people are treated with the disciplinary and methodological contexts of Post-Soviet and Europe-Asia studies. Nationalities Papers is an international and multidisciplinary journal with contributors and readers throughout North America, Western and Eastern Europe, the Far East, Japan and the People's Republic of China. Included in each general issue are in-depth analyses from the historical view, updates on latest developments, some original documents, and book reviews; some issues concentrate on a region or nationality as a special topic, which exclusive focus allows for more extensive and detailed information.

Submission of manuscripts. Authors should send the final, revised version of their articles in both hard copy paper and electronic disk forms. It is essential that the hard copy (paper) version exactly matches the material on disk. Please print out the hard copy from the disk you are sending. Send as a Word or WordPerfect attachment to nmw@niu.edu or submit two printed copies of the final version with the disk to Dr Nancy M. Wingfield, Nationalities Papers, Department of History, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL 60115, USA. Save all files on a standard 3.5 inch high-density disk. We prefer to receive disks in Microsoft Word for Windows or WordPerfect, but can translate from most other common word-processing programs. Please specify which program you have used. Do not save your files as "text only" or "read only". For further details on Electronic Submission, please visit the Taylor & Francis Website at: <http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals>

Note to authors. Please make sure your contact address information is clearly visible on the outside of all packages you are sending to Editors.

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors vest copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in The Association for the Study of Nationalities. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication provided that prior permission is obtained from Taylor & Francis Ltd. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
