2007 Academic Partnership Program
The Power of Partnership

From the publication of our award-winning quarterly, the American Journal of International Law, to hosting the world's largest annual gathering of international law experts, the American Society of International Law has maintained strong partnerships with the academic community for 100 years.

Launched in ASIL's centennial year, the Academic Partnership Program will continue to enable academic institutions to partner with ASIL to promote their program in 2007.

Benefits of partnership include:

- Recognition at ASIL's Annual Meeting as an Academic Partner
- Recognition on ASIL's web site as an Academic Partner
- Two full-page advertisements per year in the American Journal of International Law
- Full-page advertisement in ASIL Annual Meeting program book
- Opportunity to partner with ASIL at the Annual Meeting, regional meetings at campus sites, and Tillar House events
- Opportunity to distribute program materials to ASIL members through a periodic electronic ASIL Academic Bulletin

This program is available for $5,000. To participate please complete and submit the attached application. For further information, contact Maria Staunton at mstaunton@asil.org or 202-939-6000.

State Compliance with the Recommendations of the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights, 1994–2004	Frans Viljoen and Lirette Louw	1
As part of its protective mandate, the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights decides individual complaints alleging violations of the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights by state parties. This article charts compliance with the Commission's recommendations concerning violations under the individual complaints procedure, highlighting the limited direct effect of the Charter and identifying the main factors that have affected state compliance. The future role of the Commission and the African Union in improving compliance is also considered.

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The American Society of International Law was organized in 1906 “to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice.” Society membership is open to all persons of any nationality and profession who are interested in its objectives. Dues are: regular, $165; special category, $110; new professional, $85; retired, $110; student, $30. Sustaining Memberships—contributing ($275) and patrons ($10,000)—are also available. Corporations may join ASIL as institutional sponsors ($2,000). The Society is incorporated by Act of Congress approved September 20, 1950 (64 Stat. 869).

PROGRAM OF WORK

In addition to publishing the American Journal of International Law, the ASIL offers a variety of information resources and participation opportunities for members as well as nonmembers. These programs, best viewed at www.asil.org, include: publications such as International Legal Materials and Studies in Transnational Legal Policy; electronic bulletins such as ASIL Insights, International Law In Brief, and il.Post; events such as the Annual Meeting and other gatherings in Washington, DC, and around the world; OUTREACH programs for the justice sector, the media, and other audiences; an array of resources on the ASIL Web site, such as the Electronic Information System for International Law (EISIL) and the Guide to Electronic Resources for International Law (ERG); and opportunities to be part of an active network bridging expert and non-expert communities associated with the development of international law.

PHILANTHROPY AND THE SOCIETY

The ASIL accomplishes much of its work through charitable support. The Society is grateful to its many members who contribute to the annual fund and the endowment, the foundations whose grants fund special programs, and the law firms, publishers, universities, and others that sponsor ASIL activity. The Society is particularly honored to receive contributions through the Patrons program and to be included in our members' estate plans through the ASIL Heritage Circle. We recognize these contributors below.

PATRONS

Patrons of the Society contribute $10,000 or more to the ASIL Endowment for International Law. Patrons may also be recognized posthumously upon such a donation being made in their name.
