The Hakluyt Society Reprint

WE ARE REPRINTING all (except superseded) volumes published by the Hakluyt Society in its FIRST SERIES which consisted of 100 volumes. These were published originally between 1847 and 1898. The series, as noted, will be available on subscription and parts of the set or individual volumes will be available also. For further information, including full list of titles, etc., please apply. Please make reservations for complete sets or supply lists or numbers of volumes needed to fill gaps. This Reprint is by arrangement with the Hakluyt Society and we are the sole publishers. Deferred or time payment arranged. This Reprint is for 150 sets only.

THE HAKLUYT SOCIETY, established in 1846, has for its object the publication of original narratives of important voyages, travels, expeditions, and other geographical records. Books of this class are of the highest interest to students of history, geography, literature, navigation, and ethnology; and many of them, especially the spirited accounts and translations of the Elizabethan and Stuart periods, are admirable examples of English prose at the stage of its most robust development.

The Society has not confined its selection to the books of English travelers, to a particular age, or to particular regions. Where the original is foreign, the work is given in English, either a fresh translation having been made, or an earlier rendering, accurate as well as attractive, being utilized. The works are printed (with rare exceptions) at full length. Each volume was done by an editor especially competent—in many cases from personal acquaintance with the countries described—to give the reader such assistance as he needs for the elucidation of the text. In all cases where required for the better understanding of the text, the volumes are furnished with maps, portraits, and other illustrations, while the author's original plates, woodcuts, or drawings (if any) are reproduced in facsimile. One hundred volumes (forming Series I) were issued from 1847 to 1898. PRICE: $1,950, or per volume pro rata plus about 5%.

Fine Books on Renaissance Art from the Phaidon Press

This year is the fortieth anniversary of the Phaidon Press. Since its foundation in 1923 it has gained a world-wide reputation for the quality, authority and value of its publications. Here is a representative list of outstanding Phaidon books on Renaissance art.

ITALIAN HIGH RENAISSANCE AND BAROQUE SCULPTURE by John Pope-Hennessy. The third and final part of the author's monumental Introduction to Italian Sculpture. It is dominated by Michelangelo and Bernini, although lesser, undeservedly neglected men are fully discussed too. Three vols. (Text, Plates, Catalogue). 8½ by 11 ins. $12.50 each volume.

LEONARDO DA VINCI by Ludwig Goldscheider. The 6th edition of the Phaidon Leonardo contains reproductions of all Leonardo's genuine paintings and many of his drawings. 'Here is one of the finest books on Leonardo da Vinci to come to this reviewer's attention. . . . The color reproductions are of very high quality.' Art Education. 43 color plates, 61 black and white plates, bibliography. 192 pages. 9 by 12 ins. $9.50.

THE MURAL PAINTERS OF TUSCANY by Eve Borsook. This book has received universal praise from art critics and connoisseurs alike because of its unusually good photographs, carefully chosen to show the murals in their architectural setting, and its explanatory notes and catalogue. It covers the period 1300 to 1525 and deals with 38 artists, among them Giotto, Masaccio, Uccello, and Piero della Francesca. 92 plates, 1 in color. 32 illus. 176 pages. 9 by 12 ins. $25.00.

RUBENS DRAWINGS, Introduction by Julius S. Held. Two volumes. Vol. I contains the critical introduction and catalogue, Vol. II the plates. 'Invaluable new study . . . the whole production is in the best tradition of the Phaidon Press.' London Times. Two volumes. 6 color plates, 179 black and white plates, 61 illus. 428 pages. $25.00 set.

CARPACCIO by Jan Lauts. Vittore Carpaccio left behind a vivid visual record of the colorful life of Renaissance Venice. This new book contains illustrations of all his surviving works and includes an introductory essay and catalogue raisonné. 18 color plates, 186 black and white plates, 45 illus. 310 pages. 9 by 12 ins. $18.00.

THE ITALIAN PAINTERS OF THE RENAISSANCE by Bernard Berenson. The famous revised, illustrated edition of Berenson's introductory essays to the four schools of Italian Renaissance painting. 'Incomparably the best introduction in any language to any school of painting.' Times Literary Supplement. 17 color plates, 400 black and white plates. 488 pages. 7½ by 10½ in. $8.50.
