Editorial policy

The Nordic Journal of Linguistics (N<sub>JL</sub>) is published by Cambridge University Press for the Nordic Association of Linguists. The journal covers all branches of linguistics, with a special focus on issues related to the Nordic languages (including Finnish, Greenlandic and Saami) and on issues of general theoretical interest. The editors encourage submission of research articles, short communications, book reviews and review articles. Each volume contains three issues, one of which is a thematic issue.

Manuscript submission

All submissions, including book reviews, must be made through the Manuscript Central site:
<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/njl>.

General queries concerning NJL should be sent to njleditors@cambridge.org.

Books for review and queries about review articles should be sent to:
