Patent Information and Documentation

An Inventory of Services available to the Public in the European Community

Edited by the Commission of the European Communities

1976. 180 pages. Cloth DM 40.00. ISBN 3-7940-5167-X.
Available also in French and German.

The present inventory has been published in order to make the interested public aware of the already existing availability of patent documentation services and to underline the importance of patent documents as an indispensable source of technological knowledge. Geographically the inventory covers the nine member states of the European Community plus a few very important organizations outside, the services of which are at least partly available to the public in the E.C.

As fully as possible, the services offered by the National Patent Offices and other official and semi-official bodies are described, included are such private organizations which offer general, comprehensive services to the public within the field of patent information and documentation.

Contents: Standards for Patent Literature – Belgium – Denmark – France – Federal Republic of Germany – Ireland – Italy – Luxembourg – The Netherlands – United Kingdom – Non-EC-Countries – INPADOC – Japan – USA – USSR. Private Services, General – Journals dealing with industrial property right – Abstracting Journals.

The individual modular Pohlschröder Systhek system is ideal for use in all areas of libraries . . .

In co-operation with leading librarians and architects Pohlschröder has developed a new library generation.

This is a modern conception which has put a new face on the world of library.

Systhek – flexible, variable, economical – today and in future can be adapted to all functions and rooms. From the entry to the free-access area and from the "Mediothek" up to the archives the user has become the central point everywhere. Pohlschröder library system opens him the free-access to all kind of literature.

Architecturally and regarding functionality Systhek is an integrated information system.

Pohlschröder makes your libraries economical.

. . . users can work calmly at the individually performed desks . . .

Systhek – the new generation for all libraries from Pohlschröder

. . . Systhek shelf systems have also proved eminently suitable for use in material storage depots and archives because of their extremely high storage capacity, transparency and economical space use . . .

Systhek shelf units facilitate users' selection of the required material. In an agreeable environment he finds quickly all he wants. All books, reviews, journals a.s.o. can be clearly arranged with Systhek shelf units . . .

. . . with mobile Systhek shelf units it is possible to save up to 50% of space.
