Aims and Scope

The British Journal of Nutrition is an international, peer-reviewed journal publishing original papers, review articles, short communications and technical notes on human and clinical nutrition, animal nutrition and basic science as applied to nutrition. Correspondence is encouraged in a Nutrition Discussion Forum. The Journal recognizes the multidisciplinary nature of nutritional science and encourages the submission of material from all of the specialities involved in research and clinical practice. The Journal also publishes supplements on topics of particular interest.

The British Journal of Nutrition is published twice monthly by Cambridge University Press on behalf of The Nutrition Society.

The British Journal of Nutrition is available online to subscribers at journals.cambridge.org/bjn

The Nutrition Society has as its objective the advancement of the scientific study of nutrition and its applications to the maintenance of human and animal health.

Application of membership is invited from anyone whose work has contributed to the scientific knowledge of nutrition, whether such work has been in the laboratory, the field or the clinic, and whether experimental, clinical, agricultural or statistical in nature. There is also a student membership scheme with reduced subscriptions.
