Political Philosophy

FROM CHICAGO

The Major Political Writings of Jean-Jacques Rousseau

The Two Discourses and the Social Contract

Translated and Edited by John T. Scott

“John T. Scott’s new translations of three key texts capture Rousseau’s style wonderfully. His text is fluid, graceful, and as precise and effective an English rendering as can be achieved. Scott’s introduction is a model of clarity and intelligence, as are his explanatory notes. This is the English-language edition of Rousseau’s political writings to own.”—Tracy B. Strong, University of California, San Diego

CLOTH $35.00

Leo Strauss's Defense of the Philosophic Life

Reading What Is Political Philosophy?

Edited by Rafael Major

“An outstanding volume that is distinctive among the many books treating Strauss’s thought for its attempts to read Strauss as closely as Strauss reads other philosophers. The essays expertly accomplish this task with one of the most interesting and revealing of Strauss’s books, What is Political Philosophy?”

—Richard Velkley, Tulane University

PAPER $27.50

Political Theology and Early Modernity

Edited by Graham Hammill
and Julia Reinhard Lupton

With a Postscript by Étienne Balibar

“The essays collected in this superb volume seize upon the current ‘turn to religion’ in global politics (and academia) in an effort to rethink the history of secularization as a fitful, inconsistent, and perhaps interminable process that cannot help but draw upon the energies of what it aims to surpass.”

—Eric Santner, University of Chicago

To Secure the Blessings of Liberty Selected Writings of Gouverneur Morris

By Gouverneur Morris
Edited by J. Jackson Barlow

Liberty Fund is pleased to present this single-volume collection of Gouverneur Morris's writings. This edition will be a welcome addition to scholars of American and French history as the volume contains many writings that have never before been published.

Morris served as Deputy Superintendent of Finance during the American Revolution, in which capacity he devised the system of decimal coinage. He was a prominent member of the Constitutional Convention, where he spoke more frequently than any other member and, as a member of the Committee on Style and Arrangement, put the Constitution in its present form and authored its Preamble. As a private citizen in Paris, and later Minister to France (1789–94), Morris was a firsthand witness of the French Revolution. On his return to the U.S., he served as a U.S. Senator, was a prime mover in the creation of the Erie Canal, and took a leading role as a critic of the Jefferson and Madison administrations. Providing his unique perspective, this is a wonderful and accessible single source that illuminates the political and economic thought of Gouverneur Morris.

J. Jackson Barlow is the Charles A. Dana Professor of Politics and the Director, Program in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics at Juniata College, in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania.

Perspectives on Politics

Published for the American Political Science Association

Editor

Jeffrey C. Isaac, Indiana University, USA

Perspectives on Politics seeks to provide a space for broad and synthetic discussion within the political science profession and between the profession and the broader scholarly and reading publics. Such discussion necessarily draws on and contributes to the scholarship published in the more specialized journals that dominate our discipline. At the same time, Perspectives seeks to promote a complementary form of broad public discussion and synergistic understanding within the profession that is essential to advancing research and promoting scholarly community.

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

Perspectives on Politics is sold ONLY as part of a joint subscription with American Political Science Review and PS: Political Science & Politics.
