Society for American Archaeology (SAA)

is an international organization dedicated to the research, interpretation, and protection of the archaeological heritage of the Americas. With more than 5,500 members, the society represents student, avocational, and professional archaeologists working in a variety of settings including government agencies, colleges and universities, museums, and the private sector.

Since its inception in 1934, SAA has endeavored to stimulate interest and research in American archaeology; advocate and aid in the conservation of archaeological resources; encourage public access to and appreciation of archaeology; oppose all looting of sites and the purchase and sale of looted archaeological materials; and serve as a bond among those interested in the archaeology of the Americas.

SOCIETY FOR AMERICAN ARCHAEOLOGY

NOTICE TO AUTHORS

Latin American Antiquity publishes original papers on the archaeology, prehistory, and ethnohistory of Latin America, i.e., those countries—primarily Spanish speaking—comprising Mesoamerica, Central America, and South America, together with culturally affiliated adjacent regions. Authors submit manuscripts to the editor for consideration as ARTICLES or REPORTS in English, Spanish, or Portuguese. Authors should submit an original and three copies of their manuscripts (including all figures, tables, references, and notes), along with an abstract in both English and Spanish. Detailed information on policy, style, and technical matters of manuscript preparation is given in the “Editorial Policy, Information for Authors, and Style Guide for American Antiquity and Latin American Antiquity,” which appeared in September 1992 (vol. 3, no. 3), and can be read on the World Wide Web at <http://www.saa.org/Publications/StyleGuide/styframe.html>. For additional information, updates, or clarification, consult the managing editor at the SAA office in Washington, D.C.
