

Pathology of Epilepsy," by "CONH<sub>2</sub> OH, NH<sub>3</sub>;" "Status Epilepticus," by "Aura," and "The Pathology of Epilepsy," by "On and Ever Onward."

The prize of 1899 not having been awarded in accordance with the report of the committee, Dr. Peterson now offers a prize of 200 dols. for the year 1900 under similar conditions. This sum will be awarded to the author of the best unpublished contribution to the pathology and treatment of epilepsy. Originality is the main condition.

The prize is open to universal competition, but all manuscripts must be submitted in English. Each essay must be accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name and address of the author, and bearing upon the outside a motto or device, which is to be inscribed upon the essay.

All papers will be submitted to a similar committee, consisting of three members of the New York Neurological Society, and the award will be made upon its recommendation at the annual meeting of the board of managers of the Craig Colony, 9th October, 1900.

Manuscripts should be sent to Dr. Frederick Peterson, 4, West Fiftieth Street, New York City, on or before September 1st, 1900. The successful essay becomes the property of the Craig Colony, and will be published in its medical report.
