Cambridge Archaeological Journal

Published for the McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research

Editor

John Robb, University of Cambridge, UK

The Cambridge Archaeological Journal is one of the leading international journals for symbolic, social and cognitive archaeology. It provides a forum for innovative, descriptive and theoretical archaeological research. Specific topics span all archaeological ideas, regions and periods. In addition to major articles and shorter notes, the Cambridge Archaeological Journal includes book reviews and review features on significant recent books. The Journal has a distinguished editorial board including scholars of international repute.

The Antiquaries Journal

Published for the Society of Antiquaries of London

Editors

Kate Owen, The Society of Antiquaries of London, United Kingdom

Christopher Catling, The Society of Antiquaries of London, United Kingdom

The Antiquaries Journal aims to reflect the multi-disciplinary nature of the study of material culture, publishing a balanced mix of papers from all periods, from prehistory to the recent past. The journal seeks papers that address research questions from a variety of perspectives, combining, for example, historical, art historical, architectural, linguistic, archaeological and scientific data. It will be essential reading for archaeologists, architectural and art historians and material culture specialists, as well as those involved in conservation in its broadest application.

Archaeological Dialogues

Editors

Michael Dietler, University of Chicago, USA

Sarah Tarlow, University of Leicester, UK

Jeremia Pelgrom, Koninklijk Nederlands Instituut, Rome, Italy

Archaeology is undergoing rapid changes in terms of its conceptual framework and its place in contemporary society. In this challenging intellectual climate, Archaeological Dialogues has become one of the leading journals for debating innovative issues in archaeology. Firmly rooted in European archaeology, it now serves the international academic community for discussing the theories and practices of archaeology today. True to its name, debate takes a central place in Archaeological Dialogues.

Ancient Mesoamerica

Editors

William R. Fowler, Vanderbilt University, USA

Kenneth G. Hirth, Pennsylvania State University, USA

Ancient Mesoamerica is the international forum for the method, theory, substance and interpretation of Mesoamerican archaeology, art history and ethnohistory. The journal publishes papers chiefly concerned with the Pre-Columbian archaeology of the Mesoamerican region, but also features articles from other disciplines including ethnohistory, historical archaeology and ethnoarchaeology. Topics covered include the origins of agriculture, the economic base of city states and empires, political organisation from the Formative through the Early Colonial periods, the development and function of early writing, and the use of iconography to reconstruct ancient religious beliefs and practices.
