Global Constitutionalism

■ Human Rights ■ Democracy ■ Rule of Law

Global Constitutionalism – Human Rights, Democracy and the Rule of Law (GlobCon) seeks to promote a deeper understanding on the foundations, limitations and principles of political order and their dynamics over time on a global scale.

The journal is interested in work that refers to constitutionalism as a template for empirical, conceptual or normative research on past, present and future political and legal practices, within and beyond the state.

GlobCon invites submissions from scholars of International Law, Political Science, International Relations, Comparative Constitutional Law, Comparative Politics, Political Theory and Philosophy.

Published in Association with the Centre for Globalisation and Governance,

Perspectives on Politics

Published for the American Political Science Association

Editor

Jeffrey C. Isaac, Indiana University, USA

Perspectives on Politics seeks to provide a space for broad and synthetic discussion within the political science profession and between the profession and the broader scholarly and reading publics. Such discussion necessarily draws on and contributes to the scholarship published in the more specialized journals that dominate our discipline. At the same time, Perspectives seeks to promote a complementary form of broad public discussion and synergistic understanding within the profession that is essential to advancing research and promoting scholarly community.

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

Perspectives on Politics is sold ONLY as part of a joint subscription with American Political Science Review and PS: Political Science & Politics.

Notes for contributors

Manuscripts

The Editors welcome submission of articles for consideration. The length required for articles is normally 9–12,000 words, articles over 12,000 words will only be considered if there is a clear rationale for the extra length. These are also sent to independent referees. The Review is a refereed journal, and contributors should allow time for the process of refereeing to take place. It is the author's responsibility to provide the editors with an accurate total word count for all articles on submission.

Prospective authors should submit their manuscripts online via the website: <<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/ris>>. Detailed instructions for submitting your manuscript online can be found at the submission website by clicking on the Instructions and Forms link in the top right hand of the screen; and then clicking on the Online Submission Instructions for Authors icon on the following page.

An abstract of 100 words plus a short biographical note (appropriate for Notes on Contributors) should accompany the manuscript. To guarantee anonymity, authors should include a title page without their names, and remove any reference to themselves from the manuscript.

The Editors reserve the right not to accept articles not presented in the house style, details of which are given below.

References and notes

These should be amalgamated and signalled serially within each article by superscript numerals. References and notes should be at the foot of each page. References should give full biographical details, including place of publication and publisher, at first mention. Thereafter the author's surname and a short title should be used (not op. cit.). A cross-reference to the original citation, e.g. '(see n.4 above)', may also be added if the short title reference is not immediately clear. The title of an article should appear in single inverted commas; the title of a book or journal should be underlined. Main words should be 'first-letter' capitalised in article and book titles.

References and notes should be typed in the form of the following examples:

1. Lawrence Freedman, The Evolution of Nuclear Strategy (London: Macmillan, 1981), pp. 51–3.
2. Freedman, Evolution of Nuclear Strategy, p. 152.
3. Bruce Cumings, 'Japan and the Asian Periphery', in Melvyn P. Leffler and David S. Painter (eds), Origins of the Cold War (London: Routledge, 1994), pp. 226–9.
4. New York Times (13 May 1987).
5. Cumings, 'Japan', p. 216.
6. J. P. Cornford, 'The Illusion of Decision', British Journal of Political Science, 4:2 (1974), pp. 231–43.

Subheadings

Contributors are encouraged to include up to two levels of subheading in articles to provide 'signposts' for readers. They should be typed flush left with only the first word and any proper names capitalised.

General

First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the editors a current address and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs, by airmail where appropriate, within three days of receiving them.

Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright, on certain conditions, to the British International Studies Association so that their interest may be safeguarded.
