

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE FRANCIS DEÁK PRIZE

The Board of Editors is pleased to announce that the Francis Deák Prize for 2013 was awarded to Kristina Daugirdas for her article entitled Congress Underestimated: The Case of the World Bank, which appeared in the July 2013 issue.

The prize was established by Philip Cohen in memory of Dr. Francis Deák, an international legal scholar and lifelong member of the American Society of International Law, to honor a younger author who has published a meritorious contribution to international legal scholarship in the American Journal of International Law.

NOMINATIONS FOR THE BOARD OF EDITORS

The Nominating Committee of the American Journal of International Law's Board of Editors invites nominations for members of the Board of Editors to be elected in the spring of 2015. Nominations are based primarily on scholarship and creativity, as demonstrated in books, articles, and other written work appearing over a period of years, including, but not limited to, publications in the Journal. Other factors taken into account include areas of expertise or professional perspective or discipline.

Suggestions, along with supporting statements and information, such as a curriculum vitae, a list of publications, and, if possible, copies of significant publications, should be sent by December 1, 2014, to the AJIL Nominating Committee Chair, in care of the Journal's co-editors in chief:

Professors José Alvarez & Benedict Kingsbury
New York University School of Law
40 Washington Square South
New York, NY 10012
Fax: +1-212-995-4341
Email: law.ajil.admin@nyu.edu