

Psychiatric Bulletin

The Journal of Trends in Psychiatric Practice

August 1996

Volume 20 Number 8

Editorial

From family 'burden' to caregiving. G. Szmukier 449

Original papers

Antipsychotic dose: from research to clinical practice. R. Chaplin and S. McGuigan 452

The first twelve months of a community support bed unit. P. Thomas, M. Greenwood, G. Kearney and I. Murray 455

A Speciality Register: uses and limitations. S. M. Benbow and D. J. Jolley 459

Collecting suicide statistics for the severely mentally ill. R. T. Abed 461

Psychosis and substance misuse comorbidity: ethical dilemmas. R. Macpherson 463

Liaison psychiatry in detection and management of mental illness. M. Semple, D. Brown and E. Irvine 466

Threatened eviction and hospital readmission from community homes. J. Gardner and R. Pugh 470

Prevalence of hepatitis B virus in people with learning disabilities. D. Rajapakse and R. N. Ranasinghe 473

Interview

Kathleen Jones. In conversation with Peter Kennedy. 474

Education

Working for the Mental Welfare Commission for Scotland. R. Morrison and J. Geddes 480

Psychiatry in Rotterdam s University Hospital. A. Hall and J. R. Robertson 482

Briefings

The ethics of continuation studies in dementia. J. M. Kellett 485

Shoes and souls. M. Rajagopalan 486

The training of child psychiatrists in Thailand. L. B. Bartlet and V. Boonyaparakob 487

Perspectives on manic depression: a survey of the Manic Depression Fellowship
P. Bebbington 489

On learning from the patient: hearing voices. A. Warnes, G. Strathdee and K. Bhui 490

Psychiatry and the media

'Physician, reveal thyself?' M. Shooter 493

Psychiatric vignette

Pragmatism to the rescue. H. R. Rollin 495

Correspondence

The College

College role in sick doctors. S. Brandon 504

A survey of members' access to information technology. I. Pullen 505

Miscellany

Obituary

Book reviews

Forthcoming events

507

508

510

512