The Vomiting of Pregnancy. By Æneas Munro, M.D.
13. Statistics of Mortality among Prisoners, with Pathological Observations. By David Nicolson, M.B. Adlard. 1872. (Reprinted from the British and Foreign Medico-Chirurgical Review.)
14. Hades! Its Physiological, Psychological, and Theological Aspects. By Hugh Hastings, M.D. (Those who are anxious to learn what will happen to them after death, may buy for 3d. Dr. Hastings' little pamphlet. To know all about the Physiology, Psychology, and Theology of Hades, for so small a sum, cannot but be considered a wonderful bargain; moreover, it will add some interest to the hereafter, to discover, when they enter upon it, whether Dr. Hastings was right.)

THE IRISH MEMBERS OF THE MEDICO-PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION.—We are glad to hear that a General Meeting of the Irish Members of our Association has been summoned to meet in the King and Queen's College of Physicians, Dublin (whose Hall has been kindly granted for the occasion), on Wednesday, the 9th instant, for the purpose of organizing such branch meetings during the year in the Sister Kingdom as have been held on this side of the Channel and in Scotland; and for the consideration of matters more immediately affecting the interests of our Irish brethren. This is a step in the right direction, and from which we augur the best results.
