CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions are invited from all over the world, and especially from scholars working in African universities. Articles written in languages other than English will be considered on their merits, and where necessary translation will be arranged. The average length suggested is 3,000 to 6,000 words, with occasional exceptions of up to 10,000 words. Notes on centres of African studies, research projects, and reports of recent conferences are also welcome.

All correspondence and contributions should be addressed to

PROFESSOR DAVID KIMBLE,
THE JOURNAL OF MODERN AFRICAN STUDIES,
UNIVERSITY OF BOTSWANA, LESOTHO, AND SWAZILAND,
P. O. ROMA, MASERU, LESOTHO, SOUTHERN AFRICA.

Each contributor will receive a copy of the number and 25 offprints of his article free of charge.

Contributors to this Journal express their own opinions, which should not be interpreted as the official view of any institution or organisation with which they may be connected.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

The Journal of Modern African Studies is published quarterly by Cambridge University Press, P.O. Box 92, London, NW1 2DB, and 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022.

Single parts cost £2.50 (US $7.50 in the U.S.A. and Canada) plus postage. Four parts form a volume. The 1974 subscription price of a volume (which includes postage) is £7.50 net (US $23.50 in the U.S.A. and Canada) for institutions, £5.50 (US $15.00) for individuals ordering direct from the publishers and certifying that the journal is for their personal use.

Orders may be sent to a bookseller or to the publishers (in the U.S.A. and Canada to the American Branch).

Copies of the journal for subscribers in the U.S.A. and Canada are sent by air to New York to arrive with minimum delay. Second-class postage is then paid.

Claims for missing issues will only be considered if made not more than three months after posting.
