

Early China

Contents

NEWS OF THE FIELD

Developments in Historical Studies in Japan: The Yin, Zhou, Zhanquo, Qin, and Han Periods (translated from Shigaku zasshi 史学雜誌 [May, 1975]) K. Takashima, B. Ward-Czynska, and K. Czynski.....	73
Resumé of a Forthcoming Publication by Matsumaru Michio K. Takashima.....	83
Reflections on the Workshop on Classical Chinese Thought Barry B. Blakeley.....	84
A Detective's Course in Ancient China Sydney Rosen.....	85
Scholarly Visits to China: Two Accounts by Lester J. Bilsky and by Doris Dohrenwend.....	88
Other News of the Field.....	72-95
WORK IN PROGRESS.....	96
CORRESPONDENCE.....	107

EDITOR

David N. Keightley
University of California, Berkeley

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

PRE-HISTORY

Richard B. Stamps
Oakland University

SHANG

Stanley L. Mickel
Wittenberg University
Ken-ichi Takashima
University of British Columbia

WESTERN CHOU

Nancy Thompson Price
Davis, California

EASTERN CHOU

Barry B. Blakeley
Seton Hall University
Cho-yun Hsu
University of Pittsburgh
Sydney Rosen
San Francisco, California

HAN

Jack L. Dull
University of Washington, Seattle
Cho-yun Hsu

LINGUISTICS AND LITERATURE

John S. Cikoski
University of California, Berkeley
William G. Boltz
University of British Columbia

EPIGRAPHY

Gilbert L. Mattos
Foreign Broadcast Information Service
Washington, D. C.

The subscription rate is $6.00 a copy for Early China 1 and Early China 2; it will be $7.00 a copy for Early China 3. Checks should be made payable to The Society for the Study of Early China, c/o David N. Keightley, Department of History, University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720.

Published annually in the fall by The Society for the Study of Early China. The Society and the Editors assume no responsibility for the views expressed by the authors in the Society's publications.

Manuscripts and other material intended for publication should be sent to David N. Keightley at the above address. They should be typed in duplicate, double-spaced on 8 1/2-by-11-inch white paper, the footnotes separated from the text. Characters should be written after the romanization, but should not be included unless necessary. In matters of style, authors are asked to follow A Manual of Style, 12th ed., rev. Chicago, University of Chicago Press, 1969, and, for Chinese and Japanese materials, the "Style Sheet for Publications of the East Asian Research Center, Harvard University" (available from the East Asian Research Center). To avoid editorial correspondence, contributors are urged to conform as closely as possible to the printed format of this issue of Early China.

The cover background is taken from the 1640 edition of the Shih-chi, chüan 6:30b. It includes Ssu-ma Ch'ien's observation that those who do not forget the past are the masters of the future.