The Frontiers of Economic Knowledge

Essays by Arthur F. Burns

The views of Arthur F. Burns, chairman of President Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers, have taken on unusual importance in an economics-conscious America today. Here is the first rounded picture of his opinions on the timely, yet fundamental, questions of our nation's economy—including the dependability of economic forecasting, America's productive capacity, business cycle research, Keynesian thought, changes in income distribution, and trends of production. Published for the National Bureau of Economic Research.

The China Tangle

By Herbert Feis

"A calm and careful history of the American effort and policy in China has been greatly needed. Most fortunately, such a chronicle is now offered by Herbert Feis, a meticulous scholar, experienced in action, with a gift of disinterested, impersonal statement."—N.Y. Times Book Review.

"Dr. Feis's book surpasses the so-called 'White Paper on China' issued by the State Department and the official Army histories; in so doing the book comprises a splendid vindication of private scholarship in the field of government affairs."—Virginia Quarterly Review.
