

ANNOUNCEMENT

As from the first issue of 1993 (due on 10 February 1993) Proceedings A is changing its volume:issue numbering system.

In place of 3 volumes of two parts each, we will now publish one volume in six parts. The 1993 volume will be published as volume 123 parts 1 to 6, bimonthly from February.

We hope the changeover will cause no inconvenience and believe the simplification in numbering will result in more efficient order-processing.
