

1996 Program Committee

Editor's note: The full text of the 1996 Program Committee Call For Papers has appeared in the June and September issues of PS: Political Science and Politics. Though the deadline is December 1, an abridged version of the 1996 Program Committee Call For Papers is repeated in the December issue of PS. It is not that we are having separation anxiety, rather it is to maximize your chances of successfully participating in the 1996 meeting in San Francisco. The Call For Papers reprinted here is a corrected version, incorporating important changes in addresses as well as telephone, fax and e-mail numbers. Please review the material carefully.

Committee Suggestions
Welcomed

The APSA welcomes suggestions for individuals interested in serving on APSA Standing Committees for terms beginning in January 1, 1997. These appointments vary from one to three years and include Award committees, PS Editorial Board and a host of others. A listing of committees and their area of responsibility can be found in the March 1995 issue of PS. These positions are held on a volunteer basis. Interested members should make their suggestions by mail, to President-Elect Elinor Ostrom c/o the National Office at 1527 New Hampshire Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20036 or by e-mail at rudder@apsa.com.
