

The Tenth International Medical Congress for Psychotherapy.

Oxford, July 29 to August 2, 1938.

The Tenth International Medical Congress for Psychotherapy was held in the Taylor Institution in Oxford under the Presidency of Prof. C. G. Jung. This was the first occasion on which this Congress had been held in Great Britain.

Below we give, by permission of Dr. E. B. Strauss, such summaries as were made available to members at the Congress.
