

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Our warm thanks are due to the following organizations and individuals for their part in making this Symposium so successful:

The Australian Academy of Science for the use of their fine auditorium;

The Australian National University for acting as host and for providing accommodation;

Professor D. N. F. Dunbar, Deputy Vice-Chancellor of the Australian National University, for opening the Symposium;

Ken Freeman and his team from Mount Stromlo for their very efficient local organization;

Morton Roberts for acting as Secretary to the Scientific Organizing Committee;

Alar Toomre for help in many ways.

In addition, my personal thanks are due to my husband, Geoffrey Burbidge, for his unstinting help with the planning.

E. MARGARET BURBIDGE
