

Last November at a national general session organized by the Belgian Red Cross in tribute to those who work for it and to its blood donors, the President of the Society, H.R.H. Prince Albert presented to Mrs. Bungart, Mrs. Nicole Vroonen's mother, the Medal and Diploma awarded for having made the supreme sacrifice in the accomplishment of a mission.

Korea

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC

A large selection of photographs which the Red Cross of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea sent to the ICRC gives a vivid picture of the effective activities carried on by that National Society. The wide variety of these activities and the initiative they reveal are striking. They range from delicate eye and brain surgery in the hospitals at Pyongyang and the treatment of infantile paralysis under our common emblem to the example of goodwill by the members of the Junior Red Cross who do useful work such as amongst other things, caring for the lawns in front of the Grand Theatre or in the residential districts of the capital.¹

Lebanon

Last November, the Lebanese Red Cross held its seventh Annual Congress, the theme being "The Red Cross and national and international emergency relief". Four hundred persons took part in the meetings which were held simultaneously in Arabic and French. After an address of welcome by the Society President, Mrs. A. Issa-el-Khoury, several papers were presented by members
