I Tatti Studies in Italian Renaissance History

The Harvard University Center for Italian Renaissance Studies at Villa I Tatti is pleased to announce the inauguration of a new publication series of monographs and interpretive studies that concern the history of the Italian Renaissance from the thirteenth to seventeenth centuries. The series will publish two to three examples per year of the very highest quality scholarship that fit into this chronologically broad definition of the field. All books in the series will be published in English by Harvard University Press.
