

---

Calendar of Events

The American Society of Law, Medicine & Ethics has developed a webinar series to further explore the topics of JLME's symposiums. These webinars are learning opportunities that directly connect you to experts in the fields of law, medicine, public health, and ethics.

Webinar: "Race, Pharmaceuticals, and Medical Technology"

Guest Speakers: David S. Jones, M.D., Ph.D., MIT, and Dorothy E. Roberts, J.D., Northwestern University

September 30, 2008

1-2:30 pm (ET)

This webinar examines issues of race and medicine and the future of medical technology, particularly in light of recent controversies surrounding the release of the drug BiDil, which was created and marketed exclusively as a heart-failure treatment for African Americans. Our speakers will examine the past, present, and future of "race-specific" pharmaceuticals, with an eye towards what these developments mean for lawyers, physicians, and ethicists.

For more information, please contact Courtney Mc Clellan at 617-262-4990 or courtney@aslme.org.

2nd Annual Student Health Law Conference

University of Pittsburgh School of Law

Pittsburgh, PA

October 17, 2008

The American Society of Law, Medicine & Ethics and the University of Pittsburgh School of Law are co-sponsoring the second annual Student Health Law Conference. The conference highlights and covers the following topics:

- Networking with potential employers
- Learning about nontraditional jobs for health lawyers
- Discovering what health lawyers do
- Contacting prospective employers
- Getting guidance on starting your own firm

Also, one of the Featured Speakers will be Donna Gerson, author of Choosing Small, Choosing Smart: Job Search Strategies for Lawyers in the Small Firm Market.

For more information, please contact Katie Johnson at 617-262-4990 or kjohnson@aslme.org.

Webinar: "Health Care in 2008"

Guest Speakers: Sara Rosenbaum, J.D., George Washington University, and Jeanne Lambrew, Ph.D., University of Texas

November 12, 2008

1-2:30 pm (ET)

This webinar explores the state of health care reform on the eve of the presidential election in the United States. Particular attention will be paid to the millions of uninsured and underinsured people in the U.S., and ideas and opportunities that explore how to bring health care to every American citizen will be debated.

For more information, please contact Courtney Mc Clellan at 617-262-4990 or courtney@aslme.org.