The Illusion of the Free Press

John Charney

This book explores the relationship between truth and freedom in the free press. It argues that the relationship is problematic because the free press implies a competition between plural ideas, whereas truth is univocal. Based on this tension the book claims that the idea of a free press is premised on an epistemological illusion.

John Charney is Associate Professor of Constitutional Law at Pontificia Universidad Católica de Valparaíso.

Brexit and Financial Services Law and Policy

Kern Alexander,
Catherine Barnard, Eilis Ferran, Andrew Lang
and Niamh Moloney

This timely book examines the legal and regulatory implications of Brexit for financial services. Written by leading authorities in the field, the book addresses and contextualises the legal, regulatory, and policy issues across five dimensions: financial regulation implications and market access consequences for the UK financial system; labour law and free movement consequences for the UK financial system; the implications internally for EU financial governance and the euro area; the implications and relevance of the EEA/EFTA financial services market; and the trade law and World Trade Organization law implications.

Kern Alexander is Professor of Banking and Financial Market Regulation at the University of Zurich. Catherine Barnard is Professor of EU Law and Employment Law and Eilis Ferran is Professor of Company and Securities Law, both at Cambridge University. Andrew Lang is Professor of Law at Edinburgh University. Niamh Moloney is Professor of Financial Markets Law at LSE.

Justice

Continuity and Change
Lord Dyson

This selection of essays, speeches and personal reflections, draws on the analysis of one of the leading lawyers of a generation. Lord Dyson as Master of the Rolls and Head of the Civil Justice System oversaw a period of reform of both law and legal process. This collection discusses some key themes of, and challenges faced during, his tenure as one of the most senior lawyers in England and Wales. A truly compelling exploration of continuity and change in the law by one of its key jurists.

Lord Dyson was a Justice of the UK Supreme Court from 2010 until 2012 and the Master of the Rolls and Head of the Civil Justice System in England and Wales from 2012 until 2016.

Parliament's Secret War

Veronika Fikfak
and Hayley J Hooper

This book offers a critical inquiry into Parliament's role in the war prerogative since the beginning of the twentieth century, evaluating whether the UK's decisions to engage in conflict meet the recognised standards of good governance: accountability, transparency and participation. It is essential reading for anyone interested in war powers, the relationship between international law and domestic politics, and the role of the Westminster Parliament in questions of national security.

Veronika Fikfak is Lecturer in Law at the University of Cambridge.

Hayley J Hooper is Fellow in Law at the University of Oxford.
