

ANNOUNCEMENTTHE PAUL GUGGENHEIM PRIZE 1997

The Board of the Paul Guggenheim Foundation has decided to award the ninth Paul Guggenheim Prize of 12,000 Swiss francs in 1997.

The Paul Guggenheim Prize is periodically awarded to a monograph of major importance in the field of public international law (except European law). The monograph must be of the highest quality and be the work of a young author at the beginning of his/her career. Works submitted may be in the form of published books or of manuscripts intended for publication: they may be written in English, French, German, Italian or Spanish. Works which have already received a prize of a similar nature will not be considered.

Applications accompanied by a curriculum vitae, a list of publications and five copies of the work submitted must be received, no later than 31 January 1997, by: The Paul Guggenheim Foundation, The Graduate Institute of International Studies, 132, rue de Lausanne, 1211 Genève 21 (Switzerland). Applicants are required to specify whether the work has already been awarded a prize.

The Rules pertaining to the Prize may be obtained at the same address.
