

Psychiatric Bulletin
of the Royal College of Psychiatrists

November 1990

Volume 14 Number 11

Contents

Articles

Caring for People : a critical review of British Government policy for the community care of the mentally ill. F. Holloway	641
Inter-agency collaboration in the closure of psychiatric hospitals. A. Nocon and D. Tomlinson	646
The TAPS Project. 2: Challenges and pitfalls of community interviewing. D. Dayson	651
Mother and baby admissions: survey of resources. D. M. C. Cassell and R. M. Coleman	654
Why do patients occupy acute psychiatry beds? A pilot study. P. Parikh and R. Stern	657
What should community mental health workers do? Experience in an inner city support team. T. H. Turner, A. Lovett and M. Ness	661
Lunacy, insanity, and the purpose of psychiatry. B. G. Charlton	663
Careers in psychiatric specialities
1. Rehabilitation psychiatry. D. Black, E. Guthrie and K. Bridges	665
Trainees' forum
Liaison psychiatry in Addenbrooke's Hospital: six months experience. A. F. Tarbuck	668
Training matters
Teaching English to psychiatrists from overseas. L. Appleby and F. Beaton	671
Audit in practice
Psychiatric in-patient audit – the patient's perspective. C. G. Ballard and A. W. T. McDowell	674
Expert opinion
Drugs for Alzheimer's disease. A. W. Procter	676
Correspondence
	677
The College
Report of the Working Group on the training implications of the move towards community oriented treatment	686
Response by J. Catalan and M. Riccio to the Bow Group report We're Just in Time	694
President's Essay Prize	696
Senior registrar numbers in general psychiatry and old age psychiatry	696
Overseas doctors' training scheme	696
Obituary	697
Comment
Implementing Caring for People ? Draft guidance circulars from the Department of Health. F. Holloway	698
Video news	700
Scribe's column
Hood's syndrome	703
Caption Competition results	704
Forthcoming events	704

Notice to contributors inside front cover