

insufficient for parochial schools. "In this way may we hope to remove the dark cloud of human misery and debasement that in our pauper and criminal population hangs over our heads, depressing the spirit and paining the conscience of the nation; but, in addition, we shall give a safe direction to the daily increasing momentum of progress in the masses, and thus make it tend to the safety and happiness of the country and the whole community, instead of allowing it to run into disorder and humiliation."

PART III.—QUARTERLY REPORT ON THE PROGRESS OF PSYCHOLOGICAL MEDICINE.

NOTE.—The length of the Report of the Proceedings at the Annual Meeting compels us to omit the usual Quarterly Report on the Progress of Psychological Medicine.
